A stunning aerial walkway across the treetops of the wild Adirondack forest, Wild Walk is a unique experience that will take you to new heights of understanding and appreciation of nature!

Monday, October 9: THE WILD CENTER - OLD FORGE

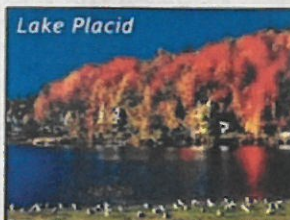

Stop for shopping and lunch in Old Forge on the way to the Adirondacks newest and most famous museum in Tupper Lake - site of the soft adventure, the Wild Walk. This stunning aerial walkway, at the top of 1,000 feet of bridges, is accessible for people of all ages. Besides the walk, the museum contains 34,000 feet of interactive exhibits, scores of live animals you can see up close, and a giant interactive sphere called Planet Adirondack. Dinner and overnight in Tupper Lake.

"Walking" on Trees at The Wild Center

Tuesday, October 10: MIRACLE ON ICE - LAKE PLACID SIGHTSEEING

Transfer to Lake Placid, sight of the 1980 Olympics and "The Miracle on Ice". Reminisce as we visit the Olympic Museum. Experience the spectacular fall colors on a scenic bus ride up Whiteface Memorial Highway. Dinner and overnight in Lake Placid.
